

INTRODUCTION

Myrna N. Azar is an Attorney at Law and has been a member at the Firm since 1994, she moved up to becoming a Partner and has a vital role in the Firm's progress and growth.

She specialized in litigation in various sectors most notably: real estate law, matrimonial and family law, along with an experience in NGO incorporation and governance.

She is a human rights advocate and was the legal counsel of the National Commission for Lebanese Women (2002-2016). During her tenure in the national commission for Lebanese Women, she attended and participate in various lectures and conferences in Lebanon, Jordan, Switzerland and The Hague.

Myrna has helped in drafting various law proposals and headed many seminars and workshops related to women's rights in Lebanon and abroad. She prepared the CEDAW report in 2016.

In 2016 the president of the National Commission for Lebanese Women handed Myrna an award for her long tenure and efforts in the sector.

EDUCATION

- Bachelor in Law- Sagesse University- 1993
- Collège Sainte Famille Française- Fanar- Lebanon

LANGUAGES

Arabic (native), French (fluent), English (fluent).