

INTRODUCTION

Rania Siagha is an Attorney at Law registered in the Bar under the number 7826 and a member at the Firm since 2016.

Rania's principal focus is Civil, Commercial and Criminal Litigation, she has also extensive experience in the NGO field and has represented several NGOs during her career most notably the Lebanese Council to Resist Violence Against Women, where she also acts as a member of the board.

Rania has also attended several conferences and seminars abroad including the United Nations Conference for Youth Sustainable Development held in Geneva in 2016, and has represented the Lebanese Council to Resist Violence Against Women held in Denmark in 2009.

EDUCATION

- DESS – Banking and Commercial Law – Sagesse University - 2009
- Bachelor in Law- Sagesse University - 1997
- College Saint elie Btina- Beirut- Lebanon - 1993

LANGUAGES

Arabic (native), French (fluent), English (fluent).